

HIKING TOUR TO MONTE QUATERNA

⌚ 6-7 h

📍 18 km

⚡ 900 hm

Description of the way:

Take the bus to the Passo Monte Croce. Take trail no. 131 to the high moor meadows and on to the mountain pasture Alpe Nemes. Follow trail no. 146 in an easterly direction, which finally ends somewhat more steeply at the head of the valley with the “Dechantmahd” and the shepherd hut and leads to the Passo del Quaternà (2329 m). Here a path branches off to the left to the Obstansersee hut and the Carnic High Trail. Along well laid out serpentine, over and finally on a slightly exposed path you reach the summit. Take trail no. 159 down to the Malga Coltrondo. Passing Lago dei Rospi, the trail leads back to the Passo Monte Croce. You can return to Moso by foot along the stream or by bus.

Variant:

you can extend the hike by descending from the summit via path 173.

Advices and suggestions:

the Mount Quaternà is the most eastern of the peaks in the valley offers for that a special view down in the Piave valley. Also, here are many remains of World War I.

Summary:

an easy way with a nice peak and beautiful views in the Comelico valley behind the Passo Monte Croce.

